

Counterfeit

The Counterfeit DPA 5

The Facts

Authentic

- The following information provides an accurate assessment of a counterfeit DPA 5 currently being sold online. This information is being provided by DG Technologies, manufacturer and sole owner to all rights of the Dearborn Protocol Adapter (DPA 5) product line.
- High level content:
 - How to spot a counterfeit DPA 5
 - The hazards of purchasing one
 - Defects and side effects
 - Where it's made
- DG Technologies strongly recommends that customers do not purchase DPA 5 kits from unauthorized distributors or online websites claiming to have brand new DPA 5 Kits for sale without verifying the origin of manufacturing.
- The Dearborn Protocol Adapter (DPA 5) is manufactured in Farmington Hills, Michigan of the United States of America.
- Websites:
 - www.dgtech.com
 - www.store.dgtech.com
- Distributors:
 - <http://www.dgtech.com/contactus/distributors.html>

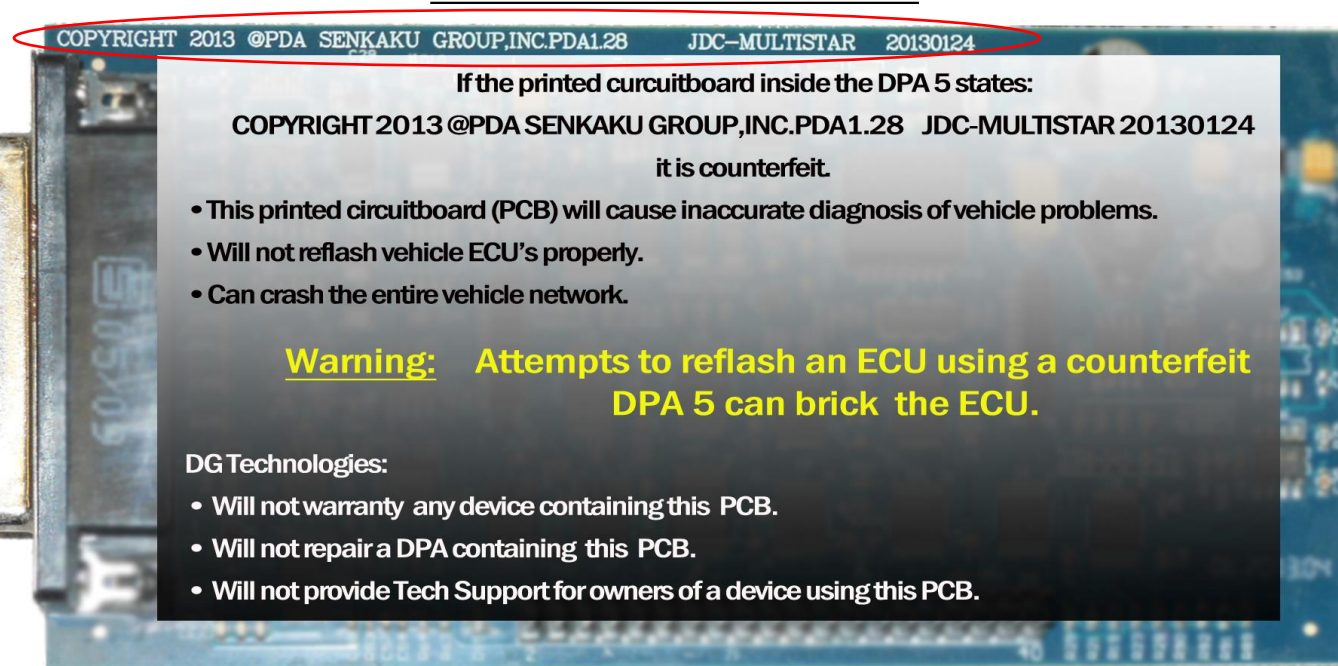

To verify DPA 5 authenticity call 248-888-2000.

www.dgtech.com

DG TECHNOLOGIES
Vehicle Network Solutions

Actual counterfeit DPA 5 circuit board

Spot a Counterfeit DPA 5 by craftsmanship and information inside the DPA 5:

Senkaku Group Inc.

- Does not make the PCB

Craftsmanship:

- Poor soldering and assembly
- Rusted connections and terminals
- Faulty PCB components

DG Technologies:

- Will not warranty
- Will not repair
- Will not support

DPA 5 Kits purchased from the Asia-pacific region, specifically Shenzhen, China, are counterfeit.

Click HERE

To see a complete list of authorized distributors in the Asia-pacific region.

www.dgtech.com

DG TECHNOLOGIES
Vehicle Network Solutions

Counterfeit DPA 5 units may or may not come with an identity label.

- Counterfeit DPA 5 units may not come with an identity label leaving customers to wonder what the on-board LED's mean.

If the DPA 5 that looks like this right out of the box:
It is counterfeit

The serial number associated with the DPA 5 will not be registered with DG Technologies

If the new DPA 5 has rust on the 25 pin connection terminal:
it is counterfeit

www.dgtech.com
DG TECHNOLOGIES
Vehicle Network Solutions

Highly important must know information:

All the CD's provided in the counterfeit DPA 5 kit contain a Trojan virus. This virus WILL infect your computer upon installing the software.

If the new DPA 5 Kit comes with 5 CD's:
It is counterfeit.

www.dgtech.com

DG TECHNOLOGIES
Vehicle Network Solutions

This is a common image of a counterfeit DPA 5 kit for sale online

A new/genuine DPA 5 kit from DG Technologies does not come pre-assembled with all the items provided in the image below.

Click HERE to see a complete list of authorized DG distributors.

Click HERE to see the REAL DPA 5 Kit Online

www.dgtech.com

DG TECHNOLOGIES
Vehicle Network Solutions