CLINICAL INTELLIGENCE FOR SUPPLY CHAIN LEADERSHIP

NOVEMBER 2019 ISSUE PREVIEW

FEATURE STORIES:

MEDICAL DISPLAYS & MONITORS

HPN reports on the latest advancements emerging in medical-grade displays and monitors used in clinical and administrative areas of healthcare facilities.

ENDOSCOPE CLEANING STRATEGIES

HPN shares tips and tricks from the pros on how to effectively and efficiently care for the minimally invasive surgical tools clinicians use on patients.

PATIENT ROOM MAKEOVERS

What devices and equipment should be included in the ideal, ultimate patient room if budgets were no object? Now what if they were? HPN highlights the options and gauges how close they may be to implementation.

KIT & TRAY PLANNING

Successful tray planning requires committed communication and collaboration between surgical staff, physicians, SPD and even supply chain. Industry experts suggest how to design kits and procedure trays to enhance and support clinical and workflow effectiveness and efficiency.

INFECTION SCREENING STRATEGIES

Today's infection screening solutions are delivering results faster and more accurately than ever before, giving clinicians greater ability to diagnose and treat their patients properly. HPN reviews the latest products and practices.

DECEMBER FEATURE STORIES:

SUPPLY CHAIN OPERATIONS WORTH WATCHING

HPN shines a spotlight on the latest group of first-class supply chain management departments achieving elite status in this annual list of success stories. Nominate a customer today!

HLD VS. STERILIZATION

Industry experts, suppliers and end-users in sterile processing departments share what they know about the most widely used disinfectants and sterilants, the differences between them, and proper usage.

AIR & WATER QUALITY

Air- and water-borne diseases prompt healthcare systems to seek better, more effective ways of curbing the problem and protecting patients from harm. HPN features best products and processes.

PPE SHOWCASE

HPN's annual spotlight on personal protective equipment looks at what healthcare professionals across departments — environmental services, surgical suites, sterile processing, and more — need to keep themselves and their patients safe.

SUSTAINABLE PROGRESS

HPN taps pros to evaluate operational momentum and patterns around environmentally astute sourcing, purchasing and contracting practices.
